CITY NEWS.

-Aimee in Mam'selle at matinee to--The engagement of Aimee closes to-night with Miss or Mrs.

- Mam'zelle at the matinee this evening, and Divorcons, by special request,

-The Pioneer Cotton Mill will be sold to-morrow at noon, at the cerner of Main and Madison streets. -The Central Committee of the charity ball will hold a final meeting at the Peabody at 4 o'clock to-morrow

-Owing to the inclement weather, the lecture on "Antipyrine" has been postponed until Thursday, the 4th instant, at 10 s.m.

-The Rev. R. H. Mahon, D. D., will preach to-night at 7:30 o'clock at the union meeting, on Court street. Services also at 10 a. m.

-Licenses to marry were issued yesterday to Charles Rice and Eliza Williams, Harry May and Margaret Dunavant, H. T. Arnold and Nellie

-Young Ashton of Memphis and Mike Cleary of New Orleans will have another glove fight at Vicksburg tonight. Jack Gailagher has tele-graphed that he will not return for -A cutting scrape occurred yesterday morring at Romeo Lucarini's lodging-house, 184 Front street. Bill Marcen drew his knife and cut Joe Tanda about the head, face and leg, and he was sent to the office of Dr. Graves to have his wounds dressed. The would-be murderer attempted to escape, but was captured near the Court-House by Officer Mike Garvin.

-Memphis Illustrated is the title of a new work just issued by the Enter-prise Publishing Company. It is without doubt one of the handsomest as well as the most complete histories of the city ever published, and shows the great growth and progress of the city as no other work of a similar character has done. The illustrations are very good, and the work, in its entirety, highly creditable to the publishers.

-In the Crimical Court yesterday A. M. Rogers, a deputy sherif, was found guilty of extortion. It was shown that he had collected $5 25 in the case of Emma Richards, found guilty of a fslony by Justice Spelman. The justice said he was of the impression that he had taxed the woman with the costs, but even in that case amount would not have reached -At a meeting of the colored pastors at 4 o'clock p.m. yesterday it was finally acreed that Mr. Moody's meetfinally acreed that Mr. Moody's meet-ing for the colored people at 11 o'clock a.m. next Sunday would be held at Avery Chapel. Pastors will arrange with their churches about the tickets at the weekly prayer meetings. It is reported that certain parties are offering for sale on the streets tickets for this meeting. Let no one be imposed upon by this fraud. Tickets will be free to as many as can obtain them from the various pastors, and the number will be limited by the capacity of the building.

-The committee in charge of the Woman's Exchange yesterday were: Mrs. S. Manaford, Mrs. W. A. Gage, Mrs. W. H. Seward and Mrs. M. Mrs. W. H. Seward and Mrs. M. Burke. Among the visitors were: Msj. J. J. Murphy, T. D. Eldridge, J. B. Hinkell, John Overton, Dr. J. B. Dunn, W. A. Gage. Capt. Jessie Forrest, R. C. Graves, W. G. Camisia, T. J. Latham, Mrs. R. R. Freeman, Dr. Wasson, A. W. Newsom, A. J. Martin, M. Donelson, C. Mason, Charles E. Pate, J. Shepherd, Martin Mitchell, J. W. Falls, Judge Calvin Vance, W. A. Wheatley, James Gailagher, James A. Wheatley, James Gallagher, James H. Smith, Robert Cash, George Fox, F. H. Heiskell, A. F. Robinson, George E. Rudisill, R. J. Morgan, W.

A. Collier and W. D. Beard. -Always ready to recognize real merit, the Arreat gives space for the following brilliant literary effort by the celebrated "Tack-Hammer" the celebrated "Tack-Hammer" Wells: "Snow-balling is going on at 3:20 o'clock p.m. There is as much mud thrown as there is beautiful snow. Kids are on top of Waldran block peppering the passers by who notice them. One big, fat annty got into a regular battle with another dark-skinned female, which caused much merriment, but now believed to be a drawn battle. Sleighs may look for a good, h—l of a time before the return from charity ball in the moreing. Coasting may break somebody's neck going down Linden street from Main to Christian church."

—In view of his recent personal ex-perience in that line, the following re-marks of President Hadden in the Police Court yesterday have some weight: 'There is one thing that I want to make a few remarks about, and it entirely slipped my memory until this moment. I notice in the papers every few days articles about matches being made for this slugging business. I think these people had better stop that. If they want to do any fighting let them go over to Hope-field, West Memphis, the sandbar or, in fact, any other place on the other side of the river. These slugging matches amount to nothing more than assault and battery. I think it is very poor amusement, and it has got to be stopped in this city."

-The last issue of the Bulletin, the official organ of the League of American Wheelman, contains the following under New York date of January 25th, and signed N. Malon Beckwith, president of the League of American Wheelmen: "Upon the recommendation of a number of the most prominent and active members of the League of American Wheelmen in Tennessee, whose sentiments were voiced at a called meeting of said members January 18th, I take pleasure in appointing as chief consul League of American Wheelmen for Tennessee, Mr. W. L. Surprise of Memphis, whose term of office shall extend to the regular election in March next." On account of the inclemency of the weather the 'Cycle Club failed to get a quorum at its annual meeting held last night,

—Some auxiety is feit in certain quarters as to the whereabouts of a young man named Crow, who came to this city some months ago and attempted to establish himself as a billcollector. He was turned out of several boarding-houses for not paying his bills, and finally wound up at a well-known boarding-house on Second generally northerly; colder weather in the street, where he met a young lady, and by gorgeous tales of boundless castern portion; nearly stationary, followed wearm ne captured her yenthful affections. After paying her court as long as his credit lasted he told her that, as he had not seen his paranta for warning the court of the c parents for several years, he was going to pay them a visit, but would return in a couple of days. That was two weeks ago, and he has not been heard from. A small trunk (empty) was left behind as a reminder, but Mr. Crow has disappeared as mysteriously as if the earth had swallowed him up.

R. G. McNames and wife of Holly Springs are in the city. MR. JOHEPH BROOKS, manager of

Leubrie's Theater, arrived in the city JOHN MULFORD, a well-known Mem-phian, who left this city several years ago, is now a bond and stock broker at 206 North Third street, St. Louis. JOHN R. DURFF of Louisville, a former citizen of Memphis, is a caudidate for the position of division super-intendent of the Postoflice Departn.ent, located at Cincinnati, with good prospects of success. Mr. Durff has many friends in this city, who will be glad to hear of his good fortune. His Democracy is unquestioned, and he is a square man all round. H. F. ARNOLD and Miss Nellie Kiley were married at the Catholic Church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. They are both well-known rociety people of the city. Mr. Arnold was formerly a member of the firm of J. J. Arnold & Co., the well-known merchants of this city. The bride is a young lady reared in this city, and was much admired for her graceful manner and amiable disposition, as well as beautiful person. The happy couple left immediately on a bridal tour to the Floridas. YESTERDAY afternoon Mr. Harry May was married to Miss Marguerite Dunayant at the Central Baptist church, the Rev. A. W. Lamar officiating. The bride was most elegantly attired in white, and never looked more lovely. Mr. May is a well-known young business man, with a bright future, and the bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. W. P. Dunavant. The ushers on the occasion were Dr. W. W. Taylor, Lewis Stark, Ed Cooper, Jack Proudfit, Sim Speers, Frank Farrabee, Charles Churchill and Robert Traylor. The bridal couple left on the 6 o'clock train for St. Louis.

FROM THE PEOPLE.

A Plea for the Cows, Horses and Mules Running at Large. To the Editors of the Appeal: The humane man is always considerate of his dumb creatures, and without dictating I would respectfully suggest to Mr. Lane that there is one crying sin in Memphis, namely, cows, horses, etc., running loose in the streets and alleys with nothing to shelter them from the rude blasts of winter. Men and women who won't care for their stock should not be allowed to own them. HUMANE.

Fire! Fire! Fire! We have bought from the late fire of Henry Peres 200 msjolica pitchers, 200 sets knives and forks, spoons, and all kinds of hard and queensware, fur-niture, chairs, that will be sold at very low figures. Also all kinds heating and cooking stoves for sale cheap, at SAM GABAY. Agent and Commission Merchabt. 409 to 413 Shalby street.

AMUSEMENTS.

Aimee in "Mam'zelle." The best house of the season, con-sidering the weather, greeted Mils. Aimee in Mam'zelle at the theater lest night. While Mam'zelle, from a dra-matic standneint, will bear no comparison with Disorcons, still it is pleasing and always delights an audience. The play has been presented in Mem-phis before, and is familiar to theatergoers, hence no extended criticism is necessary. Mile. Aimee is always charming, and last night did her best, which was appreciated by the audience, as evidenced by the generous applause and numerous encores. The appliance and numerous encores. The song "Pretty as a Picture" was the gem of the evening, the lit le lady having to reprat it three times before the audience was satisfied. The support, including the inimitable Chennill as the "Manager," and Mr. Bassett as "Tupper," was very good. At the matinee Mam'zelle will be repeated, and to-night Aimee's engagement closes with Disorcons, it having been closes with Divorcons, it having been substituted, by special request, for her new play, Miss or Mrs.

Crosby's Dime Museum, There never was a week since this house was opened when the attractions presented were so decidedly meritorious. The inflationist, James Wilson, has many admirers who are never tired of teeing him burst strong webbed braces by filling his lungs, while the handsome bearded lady, Mme. Meyers, has won a host of friends of both sexes by her bland and lady-like demeanor. Miss Eva Perry, the bird trainer, gives a pleas-ing performance with her educated canaries. In the upper hall the huge skeleton Ferralto, with his queer companion, the "What's-Its-Name" latest issue of the "No Name" series), are fully as strange and curious as the lecturer's florid description of them.

The gem of the programme upstairs is Satzums, the Japanese juggler, and he holds a crowd from first to last with his clever work. The theatorium programme is a capital one; the fascinating bird warbler, Prof. Wallace, must be heard to be thoroughly ap-preciated. He is sui generis a star of the first magnitude. The Powers twins, Miss Lena Foley, the Whitings and the sinuous Lorraine are the con-comitants of "a feast of reason and flow of sour."

Ford's Opera Company. The management of the Memphis Theater is to be congratulated upon having secured Ford's Opera Company for next week. Their delightful per-formance of the Mikado here earlier in the season will be sure to commend them to the Memphis public upon their return, when they will give, in the course of their engagement, The Princess Ida, Pirates of Penzance, Three Black Cloaks and Mikado. The Ford combination is admirably adapted to their work. The prominent actors are good elecutionists, their voices are well placed, and the grace of action they bring into their peculiar language of gesture is perfect. Not the vocal score or the vocal execution alone call for criticism in opera bouffe; the acting and the libretto must equally stand the test of legitimate analysis. An actress may sing divinely and act like a stick —she won't do for comic opers, how-ever the devotees of gand opers may applaud. She may sing and act well, but if she mumbles her part and cays stupid nothings, neither she nor the opera will please. The sale opens Friday, LOUIS HANAUER, S. H. BROOKS, S. H. BROOKS, S. ROBINSON. Second street.

He says he can save money enough Mrs. Crusty-That's just the remark my husband made. He said the overcoat he got there for $22 was worth $40, and the suit he paid $20 for could not have been made to sell for less than $35. Mrs. Testy-I'm sorry, dear, that I said anything about your husband.

Mrs. Crusty-Never mind, it was all my fault; but I guess we'd been quarreling yet if it hadn't been for the Misfit Parlors. Gracious! what happiness they do bring to Memphis. Mrs. Testy-Yes, the Misfit Parlors are a real blessing. There are bargains there for rich and poor, for it sells the finest of custom-made clothing at prices which do not often represent the cost price of clothing. You get Suits, Overcoats and Pants there for half price.

N.B.-Our present stock of fine merchant tailors misfits in elegant Overcoats and Suits that we sold originally for one-half of their actual value, we are now SELLING BELOW cost to enable us to make room for the large and handsome stock of cus-TOM-MADE GARMENTS which we will receive from our agents at the opening of the spring season. If you desire to secure a GENUINE BARGAIN in a SUIT or OVERCOAT it will pay you to give us a call.
